Claim Outlook is Encouraging.

A Lincoln special to the Omaha Bee dated Wednesday says: The officers of the Taft league, chosen at the meeting in Lincoln last week Tuesday, met at the Lindell hotel this afternoon.

There has never been a more encouraging meeting of republican workers in the state than that which assembled in the Lindell this afternoon.

Helen Doolittle Married.

A Long Beach, Cal., paper contained the following account of the wedding of Miss Helen Doolittle, a former North Platte girl:

One of the prettiest girls of Long Beach was married this morning and one of the most popular of young men claimed her for his bride.

A Yuletide wedding and all the adornments of the home suggested the Yuletide. Christmas bells swayed from every doorway, arch and across spaces.

The bride was radiantly beautiful in her traveling costume of tailored brown cloth, and there were no attendants.

Everybody knows these happy young people so well it seems hardly necessary to say that the bride is loved for her person-behavior as well as her unusual beauty.
